

Word EXPRESS

Place the question cards face down in a stack in the center.

Take turns picking the top card from the stack. Read the question to your partner without giving away the answer. If your partner says the correct answer, he keeps the card. If your partner is wrong, place the card on the bottom of the stack.

Continue until all cards are read.

When you finish, write four questions and the answers in your Notebook.