

PROMPT

Most of us have a special place that we've always wanted to go. It might be an amusement park like Disney World, a different country, a big city like Atlanta or Miami, a mysterious jungle, or even a special story.

Think about a special place you would like to visit.

Write to explain where you would like to go, and why you would like to go there.